

Sun Moon Dance

Joseph Rael, Beautiful Painted Arrow, is the visionary of the Sun Moon Dance. Although the dance was brought forth from the vision of a Native American, it is important to understand that it is not a Native American Dance.

The Sun Moon dance is open to all people of all races, religions and creeds who seek the inspiration to live a life of greater spiritual awareness and who are willing to invest the effort. This dance provides the special condition necessary for a direct experience of Spirit and of spiritual realms. Each Sun-Moon Dancer is asked to make a commitment to the dance for four years.

The four days of the Sun-Moon Dance bring many teachings. The form of the dance itself is a metaphor for prayer. Sacred dancing teaches us about the power of putting all aspects of ourselves into our prayers – physically, mentally and emotionally. The fasting observed in the dance brings us mental clarity, appreciation for food and clean water, and teaches us how strong we really are. Movement teaches us about the importance of dancing for a vision, and then dancing the vision so that it may be embodied and realized. It also teaches us that manifesting what we truly desire requires commitment, effort and surrender.

On a personal level, Sun-Moon Dancers may experience personal breakthrough and transformation, deep insights and visions, and a spiritual acceleration that lasts throughout the year.

The commitment to dance a full cycle of four dances is important as it brings about healing on mental, emotional, physical and spiritual levels. Since each of us is a microcosm of the planet, the healing we bring to ourselves also brings healing to the earth. For these reasons alone, the dance is a powerful gift that you give to yourself and to those you love.

On a planetary level, the dance works with the energy and spirits of the land. The dance arbor is the sacred Medicine Wheel, and represents the world and the life it contains and nurtures. In the dance, we work to bring in the directional energies of the east, south, west, north, up above, and down below. The web of energy created by the dancers transfers into the land, and permeates the world to bring healing. The dance and the drum releases new spiritual energy from deep within the earth to be used for peace.

Medicine Bowl Sun Moon Dance Grounds - Swannanoa, NC

The manifestation of the new Sun Moon Dance Grounds in Swannanoa NC came about because Sally Perry, Spirit Medicine, understood the need to be able to offer this ceremony to her advancing students on this path of personal growth and self-realization.

The grounds were carved into a high valley beside the Peace Chamber, forming a large protective Bowl. On completion of the excavation, the grounds seem to take on power of its own. When the 60-foot tall poplar tree was planted in the center ... Sally said "the tree brought in the energy of ascension to this sacred space." The President of the local Dowsing Society said we had uncovered a natural powerful Earth vortex, with the Poplar tree at its center.

During the World Gathering of Peace Chamber in Swannanoa in 2003, Joseph Rael, Beautiful Painted Arrow, a peace advocate, blessed the new Sun Moon Grounds while participants from around the world danced the new paths. In 1998 Joseph retired and blessed his students to continue his work. This dance is held around the world.

The planet has reached the point of acceleration and has moved to the 12/12 Doorway, completing the 11/11 paths. The 12/12 takes us into our ascension process, which will manifest a consciousness of service to mankind. This is the process that Christ talked about when he said, "I am in the world but not of the world."
